

ScottMadden's Cristin Lyons Joins ESIG Board of Directors

ATLANTA, GA – (March 31, 2020) – Cristin Lyons, partner and energy practice leader at ScottMadden, Inc., one of North America's leading management consulting firms specializing in energy, has joined the Energy Systems Integration Group's (ESIG) Board of Directors.

"I'm excited to join the ESIG team. This work is critical to meeting clean energy targets and enabling the ongoing reliability and cost effectiveness of industry solutions," says Ms. Lyons.

About ESIG

ESIG is the only non-profit educational association that focuses on providing resources and education to the engineers, researchers, technologists and policymakers for our evolving electricity and integrated energy systems. Its purpose is to educate the global energy sector and the public about the ongoing transformation of energy systems and energy-related technologies, and to support progress that is economic, reliable, sustainable, thoughtful and collaborative.

About ScottMadden's Energy Practice

We know energy from the ground up. Since 1983, we have served as energy consultants for hundreds of utilities, large and small, including all of the top 20. We focus on Transmission & Distribution, the Grid Edge, Generation, Energy Markets, Rates & Regulation, Enterprise Sustainability, and Corporate Services. Our broad, deep utility expertise is not theoretical—it is experience based. We have helped our clients develop and implement strategies, improve critical operations, reorganize departments and entire companies, and implement myriad initiatives.

About ScottMadden, Inc.

ScottMadden is the management consulting firm that does what it takes to get it done right. We consult in two main areas—Energy and Corporate & Shared Services. We deliver a broad array of consulting services ranging from strategic planning through implementation across many industries, business units, and functions.
