

ScottMadden Announces Promotion of Molly Donofrio to Partner

ATLANTA, GA – (July 1, 2021) – ScottMadden, Inc., one of North America’s leading management consulting firms specializing in energy and shared services, is pleased to announce the promotion of Molly Donofrio to partner.

With more than two decades of experience, Molly has proven herself to be a top-performing consultant. She partners with clients on a range of projects, including shared services, technology solution implementation, change management, process improvement, service center design and implementation, and international process change.

In addition to client work, Molly has led many key initiatives for the firm. She managed our 2018 strategic plan implementation, owns our staff training curriculum, and is involved with networking and outreach initiatives, like the ScottMadden Alumni Program. She is an active participant in our human capital management community of practice and acts as a sponsor to other consultants.

“Molly is a favorite across the firm. She’s a top consultant and one of our most effective leaders. Molly exhibits discipline, focus, and confidence in all she does. We are thrilled for her and can’t wait to see what she accomplishes next as a member of the partner group,” says Brad Kitchens, president and CEO of ScottMadden.

Prior to joining ScottMadden in 2006, Molly worked as a project manager for Cato Research, a global contract research organization for pharmaceutical strategy and development. She earned a B.S. from the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill and an M.B.A. in marketing and consulting from the School of Business at Wake Forest University.
