

ScottMadden to Host Free Webcast Based on Fall 2015 Energy Industry Update

ScottMadden's Fall 2015 Energy Industry Update: Strange Brew: Adapting to Changing Fundamentals

ATLANTA, GA – (August 24, 2015) – ScottMadden, Inc., one of North America's leading energy consulting firms, is pleased to join forces with Energy Central to present an interactive webinar, "ScottMadden's Fall 2015 Energy Industry Update – Strange Brew: Adapting to Changing Fundamentals," on Friday, September 25, 2015, from 2:00–3:00 PM EDT. This free webcast will be based on ScottMadden's upcoming Energy Industry Update, a semi-annual publication featuring our view of recent significant events and emerging trends that is received by more than 10,000 industry leaders.

During this 60-minute webcast, ScottMadden's industry experts will share their views on community solar, the Clean Power Plan's final rule, and grid transformation and field your questions. The panel will consist of: John Pang, partner, Todd Williams, partner and fossil practice co-leader, and Cristin Lyons, partner and transmission, distribution, and Smart Grid practice leader. Stuart Pearman, partner and energy practice leader, will serve as the webcast moderator.

Additionally, all registered attendees will receive a complimentary copy of our upcoming Energy Industry Update.
