

ScottMadden to Release the Fall 2015 Edition of the Energy Industry Update

Strange Brew: Adapting to Changing Fundamentals

ATLANTA, GA – (August 12, 2015) – ScottMadden, Inc., one of North America’s leading energy consulting firms, will release its Fall 2015 edition of the Energy Industry Update on September 15. This semi-annual publication offers our inside view of major events and emerging trends in the energy industry.

Themed “Strange Brew: Adapting to Changing Fundamentals,” this issue will include:

- A view of trends in the community solar market, different models for its deployment, and the long-term outlook for community solar in the United States
- A review of the changes in the final EPA Clean Power Plan rule from the proposed rule and the implications for compliance, as well as for industry and strategic issues
- An overview of what is happening in NY REV/grid transformation. We consider the issues and implications (e.g., cost, infrastructure investment, and changes to the regulatory and ratemaking model that build the electric system we have today)

Ensure you receive your copy of this complimentary report to help you prepare for emerging trends by subscribing to receive the Energy Industry Update here. To download the prior issue, the Winter 2015 ScottMadden Energy Industry Update, please click here.

For more than a decade, the ScottMadden Energy Industry Update has served as the catalyst for strategic discussion, debate, and decisions. More than 10,000 executive leaders rely on it for the most important trends and thought-provoking insights.
