

ScottMadden Experts Host Complimentary Webcast Based on Summer 2014 Energy Industry Update

State of the Energy Industry: A Mid-Year Review (or “I Feel the Earth Move under My Feet” – with apologies to Carole King)

ATLANTA, GA – (August 28, 2014) – ScottMadden, Inc., one of North America’s leading energy consulting firms, recently joined forces with Energy Central to present an interactive webinar, “State of the Energy Industry: A Mid-Year Review.” This session, moderated by Stuart Pearman, partner and energy practice leader at ScottMadden, was based on ScottMadden’s latest Energy Industry Update, a semi-annual publication featuring our view of recent significant events and emerging trends that is received by more than 10,000 industry leaders.

During this 60-minute webcast, panelists John Pang, partner; Todd Williams, partner and fossil practice co-leader; and Cristin Lyons, partner and transmission, distribution, and Smart Grid practice leader, shared their views, and fielded questions from the audience. Additionally, all registered attendees received an exclusive sneak peak of our EIU summer 2014 edition before it was released to the public.

“As in the past, we saw particularly strong interest and registrations for ScottMadden’s Energy Industry Update Webcast. We were pleased to team with them for this event again this year,” said PJ Davis, webcast producer and content manager at Energy Central.

If you were unable to participate in the live session, the webcast deck and session replay are available on ScottMadden’s web site here.
